THE SHOOTING GALLERY This interesting institution, under the harge of M. McKeon, did a fine business. Mr. John McDonald won the pitcher shot for last night. In the latter there were only two ties-60 each; in the shooting off, McDonald beat Matt Kenley, and carried home both pitchers. Another pitcher will be put up Monday night. The person who found a gold chain on the floor last night, will please leave it with any of the Sunday School teachers. The new Virginia interest law makes six er cent, the legal rate, but allows banks to take half of one per cent. for 30 days in advance. The penalty for usury is the for-

WAR DEPARTMENT, OFFICE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER. Washington, April 12, 1:00 a. M. Probabilities.—In New England, fresh and brisk northerly and northwest winds, decidedly lower temperature and clear or partly cloudy weather will prevail. For the Middle States and the lower lake region, winds veering to northerly and easterly, generally lower temperature than

on Saturday, and clear or partly cloudy

For the South Atlantic and Gulf States east of the Mississippi river, clear weather and rising temperature. For Tennessee and the lower Ohio valley, southerly to easterly winds and increasng cloudiness, with possibly rain. For the upper lake region, Minnesota, Iowa and Missouri, falling barometer, generally rising temperature, east to south winds increasing to brisk and high, clouds, and probably very miny weather preceding the storm. The lower Mississippi river will remain nearly stationary, but the lower Ohio will
